Men’s World Cup Trivia

Choose one answer per question. Circle A, B, C, or D.

1. What was the trophy called when it was awarded to the 1970 World Cup champions, four years before a new trophy debuted?
   A. The Jules Rimet Trophy
   B. The Henri Delaunay Trophy
   C. The Confederations Cup Trophy
   D. The Copa América Trophy

2. Which men’s national team won the 2014 FIFA World Cup final against Argentina at the Maracanã in Rio de Janeiro?
   A. The Netherlands
   B. Brazil
   C. Germany
   D. France

3. Which country hosted the 1994 men’s FIFA World Cup?
   A. Mexico
   B. The United States
   C. Canada
   D. Brazil

4. Andrés Iniesta settled the 2010 final with an extra-time goal against the Netherlands. Which country did he score for?
   A. Uruguay
   B. Portugal
   C. Argentina
   D. Spain

5. In Qatar in 2022, which team beat Portugal to become the first from Africa to reach a men’s FIFA World Cup semifinal?
   A. Senegal
   B. Morocco
   C. Cameroon
   D. Ghana

6. Which French player scored both of his team’s first-half goals with headers in the 1998 final against Brazil?

A. Zinedine Zidane
B. Emmanuel Petit
C. Youri Djorkaeff
D. Didier Deschamps

7. Just Fontaine played six matches for France at Sweden 1958. How many goals did he score in that tournament?

A. 14
B. 10
C. 11
D. 13

8. Roger Milla helped Cameroon win its round-of-16 match 2–1 at the 1990 tournament in Italy. Which team did Cameroon eliminate?

A. Argentina
B. Romania
C. Colombia
D. England

9. Australia scored three late goals for a 3–1 win in its opening match at Germany 2006. Which team was on the other side of that result?

A. Japan
B. Croatia
C. Brazil
D. Italy

10. In a 1966 quarterfinal, Portugal trailed 3–0 before winning 5–3 with four goals from Eusébio. Which team had taken the early lead?

A. Hungary
B. South Korea
C. Bulgaria
D. North Korea

11. In the 1950 final round, Brazil had two wins before meeting Uruguay, which had one win and one draw. With two points for a win and one for a draw, what would their point totals have been if the last match had ended level?

A. Brazil 4, Uruguay 5
B. Brazil 5, Uruguay 5
C. Brazil 5, Uruguay 4
D. Brazil 6, Uruguay 4

12. The men’s World Cup grew from 24 teams to 32 in 1998. Europe’s allocation increased by two places and South America’s by one. Together, what fraction of the increase did they account for?

A. 3 of the 32 total places
B. 3 of the 8 added places
C. 2 of the 8 added places
D. 5 of the 8 added places

13. Germany’s Miroslav Klose scored five goals in 2002 and five in 2006. He finished with 16 goals when his World Cup career ended in 2014. How many came in his two later tournaments combined?

A. 11
B. 5
C. 10
D. 6

14. Japan and Senegal finished level on group points, goal difference, and goals scored in 2018. They also drew their match. Which entry explains how FIFA awarded Group H’s last spot in the knockout stage?

A. Japan advanced because it had the better fair-play score.
B. Japan advanced because it had a better overall goal difference.
C. Senegal advanced because it won the match between them.
D. Senegal advanced because it had the better fair-play score.

15. An archive shows Italy and Spain drawing 1–1 after extra time in a 1934 quarterfinal, followed by Italy winning 1–0 the next day. Why does the same quarterfinal have two match entries?

A. The second entry records the first match’s penalty shootout.
B. The round had two scheduled legs, with advancement based on the combined score.
C. The tied first match required a replay, which Italy won to advance.
D. The first match ended in the groups and the second belonged to the semifinals.